Alex Marianyi

Alex Marianyi, Manager, Operations, Analytics, joined GG+A in May 2013. As part of the Analytics Operations team, he processes wealth screening data for GG+A's prospect analytics tool, DonorScape®, and assists with predictive modeling reports as well as representing the firm in a client support role.

Prior to joining GG+A, Alex worked for East-West University in the Records Office and Financial Aid Office, where he honed his knowledge on higher education administration. Previously he spent time working in Columbia College Chicago's Admissions Office.

Alex holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Music with a concentration in Jazz Saxophone Performance from Columbia College Chicago. He serves as a journalist for several jazz-focused publications and as a staff writer for Nextbop.com and has volunteered for some small Chicago non-profits such as Jane Addams Resource Corporation.

During his tenure at GG+A, Alex has provided counsel to the following institutions:

Carnegie Mellon University

DePaul University

Hoag Hospital Foundation

Miami University

Oregon State University

Philadelphia Orchestra

Virginia Tech Foundation