

Jan Okey

Jan Okey, Project Assistant, joined GG+A in November 1978. In her role, she works with project managers and consultants on strategic planning studies and development program reviews, as well as providing ongoing and day-to-day support to consultants. Jan holds Bachelor of Arts degree from Miami University.

During her tenure at GG+A, Jan has provided service to the following institutions:

American University

Brown University

College of DuPage Foundation

Northampton Community College

University of California, Santa Barbara

University of Florida Foundation