

Elizabeth Jensen

Elizabeth Jensen, Executive Assistant, joined GG+A in 2016. In her role, she provides administrative services to the Education and the Healthcare consulting practice areas. Her responsibilities include client communication, reporting, and the completion of all project-related support tasks.

Prior to joining the GG+A team, Elizabeth functioned as the Director's Assistant at Augustana College Art Museum where, among other duties, she was responsible for curating art pieces for student viewing, developing and writing articles for museum publications, and assisting museum staff with event coordination.

Elizabeth volunteers at the DuSable Museum of African-American History. Notably, Elizabeth once received a customer service award from O'Hare International Airport and she has lived and studied extensively in Hong Kong, Ghana and Senegal.

She received her Bachelor of Arts in Art History and Africana Studies from Augustana College in 2015.
