

Megan C. Williamson

Megan C. Williamson currently serves GG+A as a Consulting Associate.

Prior to joining the firm, Megan worked as the Director of Individual Giving at Housing Opportunities for Women, where she developed and implemented strategies in direct mail, e-solicitation, special events, communications, website management, and social media. In her role, she increased annual event revenue by 22%, planned and produced all development and organizational publications, and worked as part of the leadership team on key strategic issues, including organizational merger plans.

Previously, Megan served as a development and public relations professional with a focus on nonprofit administration, volunteer management, and board relations for Old St. Patrick's Church; Project Exploration; Girl Scouts – Prairie Winds, Inc. (Girl Scouts of Chicagoland and Northwest Indiana); and Glenwood School for Boys and Girls (Glenwood Academy).

Megan holds a bachelor's degree in journalism and mass communication from Drake University and a master's degree in public administration from the University of Illinois at Springfield. She is also a Certified Fund Raising Executive (CFRE).

During her tenure with GG+A, Megan Williamson has provided counsel to the following institutions:
