

Madeleine Bianchi

Madeleine Bianchi, Project Assistant, provides administrative assistance and project support to our consultants and project managers. She primarily focuses on clients in the higher education and arts and culture sectors.

Prior to GG+A, Maddie interned with the Lower Manhattan Cultural Council, where she provided key support to the Institutional Giving & Government Relations team by researching, compiling, and writing grant proposals. She contributed to a report on labor standards and human rights issues as a research assistant at the University of Michigan and interned at Big Brothers Big Sisters of Washtenaw County as a grant writing intern.

Maddie holds a B.A. in International Studies with minors in Art History and Chinese from the University of Michigan.

During HIS/HER tenure with GG+A, NAME has provided counsel to the following client institutions: